an E. S. von H. Th.

Dear Sir,

I have the pleasure to inform you that the enclosed report of the Commission of Enquiry into the circumstances of the death of the late Mr. John Smith, is now ready for your perusal. The Commission has found that the death was caused by a sudden attack of apoplexy, and that there was no foul play involved in the case.

The Commission also found that the late Mr. Smith was suffering from a long-standing illness, and that his death was a natural result of this illness. The Commission has recommended that the late Mr. Smith should be buried in the family vault, and that the expenses of the funeral should be paid by the estate. I am sure that you will be satisfied with the findings of the Commission, and that you will agree to the recommendations made by it.

I am, Sir, very respectfully,
Your obedient servant,
J. H. Smith
