March 10, 1964.

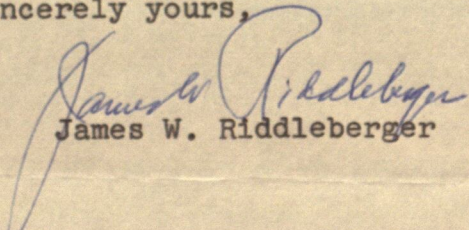

Dear Professor Thirring:

In response to your letter of March 5, 1964, I have transmitted to Mr. W. C. Foster your letter to him with its enclosures respecting the proposals for a Danube Pact. I likewise transmitted your letter to the Secretary of State respecting Austrian neutrality.

According to information I received only recently, Mr. W. C. Foster is at present in Washington.

With every good wish,

Sincerely yours,

James W. Riddleberger
